

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA
DEPARTMENT OF COMMUNITY & ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

DATE: February 9, 2023

TO: The Honorable Dana Fritz
Chief of Staff
Office of the Governor

FROM: Frederick C. Siger, Acting Secretary
Department of Community and Economic Development

SUBJECT: Abstention Memorandum

Please be advised that, effective immediately, and until further notice is given, I hereby FULLY ABSTAIN from all involvement in matters that affect or might reasonably be expected substantially to affect Carnegie Mellon University, its affiliates, subsidiaries, representatives, and employees, including all programming, contracting, and/or funding decisions that directly or specifically involve Carnegie Mellon University.

All matters that fall within this abstention, including but not limited to inquiries, comments, questions, or decisions that must be made regarding Carnegie Mellon University, its affiliates, subsidiaries, representatives, and employees; or the Commonwealth's initiatives or actions affecting Carnegie Mellon University that would be within the scope of my duties as Secretary should be directed to Michael Hanna, Executive Deputy Secretary, without notifying me.

Please direct any correspondence, calls, inquires, or requests regarding Carnegie Mellon University and its affiliates, subsidiaries, representatives, and employees, that would otherwise have required my participation or review, to Michael Hanna, who will represent the Department of Community and Economic Development in my place.

If you have any questions regarding this abstention, please contact Lori Irwin, Chief Counsel, at telephone [REDACTED].
